This is a Pearson BTEC Level 4 (MQF/EQF Level 5) Diploma in Management and Leadership with (QCF) Number 601/3500/1.

This qualification title will appear on learners’ certificates.

Key Features of the Diploma in Management and Leadership

This qualification has been designed for learners’ to develop the managerial and technical knowledge required to effectively manage people, processes and performance within an operational area of responsibility. The qualification is suitable for learners who work in, or want to work in management and leadership roles such as Manager, Area Manager, Business Manager, Quality Manager and Business Improvement Manager.

Depending on the selected Units, the qualification gives learners the opportunity to:

- develop managerial and wider technical knowledge to underpin competence in the job roles stated above. This includes the knowledge covering the principles and practices of effective leadership and management, resource planning and management, recruitment and selection, budget management, stakeholder engagement and management and developing respectful and productive working relationships.

- develop specialist technical knowledge to provide learners with a framework for extending their occupational skills to specialised management and leadership roles. This objective is supported by the inclusion of content themes such as business performance measurement and improvement, business strategic planning and development, quality management, innovation and change management, legal context of business and project management.

- Progress to the Pearson BTEC Level 5 (EQFL Level 5) Diploma in Management and Leadership (QCF). With further development, learners can alternatively progress into job roles requiring a more complex set of skills such as Senior Manager, Head of Department and Director. Following the full EQF Level 5 qualification, learners can progress to a full BA (Hons) Degree.
